

*"Leadership is lifting a person's vision to high sights, the raising of a person's performance to a higher standard,
the building of a personality beyond its normal limitations."*

- Peter F. Drucker

Joanna Brill – Senior Consultant

Joanna Brill is a Singapore based consultant for Clarion Learning. As a qualified coach and trainer she delivers programs for Clarion Learning clients in Asia. She has a passion for working with people to facilitate positive change and create opportunity for self-directed learning. She currently has a client roster covering personal and corporate sectors.

Joanna graduated with an Honours degree in Business Studies from Plymouth University. She then embarked on a 10 year career as a marketing communications professional culminating in a leadership role with Henderson Global Investors, London. During this time Joanna led a marketing team working across the UK and globally for 5 years which created best of class events including a program for Williams Formula 1 team sponsorship. After a short career break she moved to Singapore and immediately embarked on her qualification for coaching. She successfully certified as a coach and continues to build her capabilities through the International Coaching Federation (ICF).

Joanna challenges clients within a supportive environment and provides a rich source of encouragement and support to grow confidence and performance. Her key area of professional interest is in working with individuals and teams, evolving them to meet fast changing industry needs.

She uses structured approaches, tools and measurement criteria to ensure the objectives of the coaching and training are met efficiently and effectively. Someone who is extremely flexible she prides herself on making the journey to the goal enjoyable and fulfilling for the person, team and company. Her strengths as a coach and trainer are her ability to co-create vision, create powerful strategies, insights and sustainable learning.

As a trainer and mentor she works with executives and professionals to develop their coaching capabilities in line with International Coaching Federation competencies. She also facilitates leadership programs for high potential college students. She is passionate about working with people to connect them with their greatest potential, demonstrating rigour, authenticity and presence.

Joanna is British and continues to live and work in Singapore with her husband and 2 children. She looks forward to further exploration of Asia and thrives in the great environment Singapore offers.
