

*"It is not the biggest, the brightest or the best that will survive,
but those who adapt the quickest."*

Carole Lewis - Consultant

Carole Lewis is a Hong Kong based consultant. As a certified coach and trainer she delivers programs for Clarion Learning clients in Asia. She is a British Canadian and has lived in Hong Kong for the past 13 years. She is passionate about supporting people to improve their personal effectiveness at work and brings to this her own skills, passion and energy for developing people as well as her experience with, and sensitivity to, local Hong Kong culture.

Carole began her career in people development over 20 years ago and has added to her qualifications over the years as she gained work experience around the globe. She has worked in Canada, the United States, Hong Kong, China, Singapore and other countries within the Asia Pacific region. Her decision to return to university as a mature student in her late 30's gave her new insight into the value of life long learning – and a degree in Adult Education. Her passion for helping others develop led her to add coaching to her skills and she is now a certified coach with the International Coach Federation. She is also certified to deliver Harrison Assessments.

Carole's background in training has included a focus on corporate communications training in Hong Kong where she designed and delivered customized programs for many of Hong Kong's leading institutions including: The Securities and Futures Commission, The ICAC, The Hong Kong Monetary Authority, Inland Revenue, HSBC and Hang Seng Bank. She also delivers coach-training programs for individuals who want to become coaches and managers who want to coach their staff.

Carole now calls Hong Kong home and lives there with her husband enjoying all that the diverse city has to offer.
